

Balanced scorecard for Intelligent Re-commerce site

Balance scorecard refers to a strategic management performance metric used to identify and improve various internal business functions and their resulting external outcomes. Used to measure and provide feedback to organizations. Company can make future and strategic decision analyzing balanced score card

